

RACING RULES & SAILING SHARP SEMINAR

The seminar is designed around the concept that knowing the racing rules of sailing, makes racing an enjoyable and safe contest while using one's skill, seamanship, and applying the principles of sportsmanship, and fair play.

The conversation will include all elements of a race and the 2009-2012 rule or rules that apply.

Seminar handout material will be given to each participant. The event is open to all sailors, including those racing under one-design and handicap rating systems and in junior programs.

The seminars are hosted by yacht clubs around the shore of Lake Michigan.

Facilitators include US Sailing Judges: Allan A. Teske, Robert Sargent, Nancy Glover, Ted Jones, Andrew J. Kiener, Dennis Bartley

The cost of the seminar is Twenty Five Dollars ($25.00). A lunch is included in the cost of the seminar and will be provided by the host club. The starting time for all sessions will be 09:00 local time and end at 16:00 Bring your rule book. New rule books will be available for sale.
